PREAMBLE

TCA COLLEGE (SINGAPORE) – and the THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY OF THE ASSEMBLIES OF GOD OF SPAIN, are theological institutions that are founded on the Holy Scriptures and dedicated to the training of leaders for the development of the church and the fulfilment of its mission. For this reason, we maintain our doors open to all those that have been called of the Lord to dedicate themselves to Christian leadership and to offer programs of preparation in various areas of the ecclesiastical-pastoral fields of service.

These study programs concentrate on the analysis and comprehension of the Scriptures and of theology as well as a socio-anthropological understanding of man in his contemporary cultural setting; for it is our indispensable charge to reach our fellow man with the message of the Gospel. It is with this understanding that we constantly seek to relate theoretical knowledge and its application to all areas of ministerial functions. Thus, our students learn by way of investigation and analysis as well as the application of their knowledge in their field of work.

So then, with the purpose of instituting a covenant of institutional and academic collaboration that favours reciprocity in the formation of Biblical-theological-pastoral studies, «TCA COLLEGE», and the «THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY OF THE ASSEMBLIES OF GOD OF SPAIN», officially establish, on this date, the following PACT of Institutional RECOGNITION AND ACADEMIC COLLABORATION.

ACADEMIC ASPECT

- 1) The partnership of these two institutions is governed by the here-in mentioned COVENANT.
- 2) The «TCA COLLEGE», and the «THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY OF THE ASSEMBLIES OF GOD OF SPAIN», mutually recognize one another as equal partners in theological education.
- 3) The «TCA COLLEGE», and the «THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY OF THE ASSEMBLIES OF GOD OF SPAIN», recognize, all Biblical-theological-pastoral studies of the corresponding academic ministerial programs to the Bachelor Degree graduation level that are successfully taken in the respective Centres of Study in accordance to this present covenant.

4) The «TCA COLLEGE», and the «THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY OF THE ASSEMBLIES OF GOD OF SPAIN», will accept as students from the bachelor level programs giving recognition for the courses studied in these respective seminaries and integrating them into the appropriate academic level deserving of the successful completion of said studies in the theological seminary that receives them without compromising standards required by accrediting bodies. .

5) The «TCA COLLEGE», and the «THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY OF THE ASSEMBLIES OF GOD OF SPAIN», will accept students into their master level programs who have earned a Bachelor's degree in theology from their respective seminaries without compromising standards required by accrediting bodies.

6) By way of this covenant, we agree to celebrate together as one, when the circumstances of special courses so require, seminars, special trips, symposiums, etcetera, each institution bringing with them those professors that are deemed required for said functions.

7) The students of both institutions can participate in courses and seminars given by either one of these two institutions and receive the corresponding credits up to bachelor level without compromising standards required by accrediting bodies.

8) Given the relationship that is being established by way of this pact, all students and professors of both institutions can participate in any activity organized by these participating centres, enjoying the very same functioning status and position during such events in both establishments as they do in their own institution. All such participation must be approved by both institutions.

RELATIONS
